DISCOVER QUEENSLAND BY RAIL

Queensland has so much to offer – from the World Heritage-listed Fraser Island and the islands of the Whitsundays, to the ancient rainforests of North Queensland and the vast rugged landscapes of the outback.

And what better way to access these must-do destinations, than with Queensland Rail Travel, Australia’s most comprehensive rail network with five long distance services and two tourist trains.

Our train journeys extend along the Queensland coastline from Brisbane to Cairns and west to Charleville, Mount Isa and Longreach to the heart of Queensland’s outback.
