

Queensland Rail Travel has worked closely with Industry and Government Departments to ensure that we can deliver a first-class experience on the Spirit of the Outback that complies with the COVID safe requirements. The safety of our customers, our employees and the communities we visit is paramount.

Tuckerbox Restaurant Update

We are returning to regular seating capacity in the restaurant carriage from Saturday 17 April 2021.

This will result in the Tuckerbox Restaurant Carriage accommodating up to 32 people per seating, on eight tables (booths) of four.

Cleaning and Hygiene Practices

Strict cleaning and hygiene practices are already in place, in line with our current COVID Safe requirements, including but not limited to:

- All surfaces are sanitised between seatings.
- Menus are laminated and cleaned between seatings.
- Fresh table linen is used between seatings.
- Hand sanitiser is available for employees and customers.
- Crockery, cutlery and glassware is thoroughly cleaned after each meal.
- Food is served on individual plates - there are no share plates.
- Mealtimes are limited to 1.5 hours per seating maximum, less where possible.

Please visit our website for further information in relation to Novel-Coronavirus - COVID-19.

Collection of Contact Details and Communication of Dining Arrangements

The following information will be discussed with customers:

- Contact details to be captured (and stored for 56 days).
- Seating arrangements in the Tuckerbox restaurant carriage will be advised.
- A full refund will be provided if customers choose to cancel their travel.

To ensure we protect everyone against the spread of COVID-19 it is a requirement that all Spirit of the Outback First Class customers provide their contact details before travelling with us.
