JAMES MAY'S BIG TROUBLE IN MODEL BRITAIN

Join model train enthusiast James May as he takes viewers behind the scenes of one of the world's best-loved toy companies, as it teeters on the brink of collapse. Hornby Hobbies, makers of Scalextric, Airfix and Hornby Railways, has lost £30 million in the past five years and a new boss Lyndon Davies has been appointed to turn around the company's fortunes. To help in the fight for survival he has enlisted some company veterans, including Simon Kohler, known affectionately as Mr Hornby, who returns after a four-year absence and attempts to reconnect with Hornby's dissatisfied customer base. Meanwhile, in a bid to revitalise Airfix, Lyndon charges master amateur model builder, Jim Bren with the most ambitious build of his life – the largest reconstruction of the Hellcat plane ever attempted by the company. This episode also provides a rare glimpse into the highly secretive world of Hornby's design and development process, and introduces us to members of the Double O Gauge Association as they prepare for one of the biggest events in the model railway enthusiasts' calendar – The Great Electric Train Show in Milton Keynes.

RIDE LIKE A GIRL

One of the best loved Australian movies of 2019, this directorial debut by Rachel Griffiths, tells the inspirational true story of Michelle Payne, the first woman to ever win the Melbourne Cup. Teresa Palmer plays the feisty jockey, the youngest of 10 children, who overcame a raft of challenges and setbacks to fulfil her childhood dream of winning the race that stops a nation.

A celebration of courage, determination and resilience, the film follows Michelle's life from the tragic loss of her mother in a car accident as an infant, to leaving school at the age of 15 to become a jockey, to her early failures, a near fatal race fall and, finally, her history-making triumph riding Prince of Penzance to victory in the 2015 Melbourne Cup.

In a heart-warming twist, Michelle's strapper and greatest cheerleader, her brother Stevie Payne, plays himself in the film. Have your tissues ready.
